

Successful year for Lyme's summer fundraising events

LYME Regis' two main summer events are both celebrating successful years with a hugely popular Regatta and Carnival Week and Lifeboat Week profits exceeding all expectations.

Organisers of Regatta and Carnival Week, which came to a close on Sunday, reported excellent attendance at many events and the carnival procession on Saturday night has been described as "one of the best in years".

In particular, the organising committee were delighted that local traders, residents and visitors threw themselves behind this year's decorated duck competition, which received an "overwhelming" response.

More than 100 shops and businesses decorated and displayed wooden ducks with some even featuring on BBC Spotlight last week. The public voted for their favourite entries and the winners were announced on Saturday ahead of the carnival procession.

The winner was "Cosmic Duck" from Bizley Art, with the Mayor of Lyme Regis, Councillor Owen Lovell, presenting an egg trophy to owner and artist Richard Bizley. Second place went to "Duck-osaurus" by Edwards & Parr and third prize went to "Herbies Dino Duck" by Herbies Dino Bar.

The winning ducks were joined by runners-up on a special float in the well-supported carnival procession on Saturday night, which also featured Bournemouth Youth Marching Band, Street Heat Samba Band from Exeter, Lyme Regis Majorettes and many local families and businesses in fancy dress.

The procession followed a successful firework display on Thursday evening, and proceeded what was described as "the biggest duck race Lyme Regis has ever seen" on Sunday.

Lyme Regis Regatta and Carnival Committee chairman, Andy Brown, said: "I would like to thank the businesses for coming together in the true spirit of carnival. They showed so much enthusiasm, so much endeavour that we were truly overwhelmed with their creations.

"The procession was one of the largest we have seen for many years. We would like to say a special thank you to local groups and organisations that spent months planning their costumes.

"Regatta and Carnival Week has been a huge success! The community came together to enjoy everything that carnival endeavours to achieve and we cannot wait for 2016."

Organisers of Lifeboat Week also this week announced that profits taken during their events in July exceeded all expectations and stood at £22,000 with money still coming in.

Unlike the sunshine seen during Regatta and Carnival Week, the fundraising events for the RNLI earlier this summer were plagued with poor weather. The two biggest crowd-pullers - displays by the Red Arrows and RAF Falcons - had to be cancelled and organisers only expected to make £15,000 - half of last year's total.

Speaking on the £22,000 figure, chairman of the RNLI Guild, Irene Roper, said: "This is just amazing and is a huge tribute to all our volunteers and, of course, to the wonderful generosity of those who gave to our life-saving charity during a week of very unpredictable weather.

"Neither the Red Arrows nor the RAF Falcons parachute display team could attend because of the weather. These two events are undoubtedly highlights of the week, and without them we have still managed to raise more than we could have hoped.

"Now we start planning for next year, and we will always welcome extra help, so anyone who would like to join us on the committee is invited to contact me on irenelroper@googlemail.com."

Council opposes proposed museum extension design

THE town council has recommended refusal of plans to extend Lyme Regis Museum due to issues with the proposed modern design.

Members of the town council's Planning & Highways Committee were split when the plans were discussed at last week's meeting. Eventually it was agreed to recommend refusal to planning authority West Dorset District Council on a narrow majority of five against four.

The council recommended refusal on the grounds of the contemporary design not being in keeping with either the existing museum building or the character of the area.

Some councillors emphasised that they were not against an extension to the museum, or even a more modern design for the extension, but in particular did not think some of the proposed materials were suitable, including a two-storey zinc clad wall.

Lyme Regis Museum hopes its proposed £1.6million Mary Anning Wing extension will be open by summer 2017.

It will include a learning space for schools, families, researchers and community groups; a re-displayed geology gallery to bring alive the story of Lyme's famous fossil hunter, Mary Anning, and showcase the museum's fossil collection; space for a lively programme of events, talks and activities; a new visitor reception area and shop, a lift to the upper floor galleries and a fully accessible toilet, as the museum currently does not have disabled access or facilities.

JOANNA Smith is a teacher and writer and has been teaching creative writing in Lyme Regis and Uplyme since 2008.

She has written three films that were shot in Southern Africa and her book 'Lesser Known Lyme Regis' was published by Roving Press last year.

● WHERE did your love of writing come from?

It's hard to say! I started scribbling stories as soon as I could hold a pencil. Like most people though, I just stopped writing fiction as soon as I left school and poured all my writing energy into letters and journals and the odd newspaper article. It took me a couple of decades to get back to fiction.

● WHAT were you doing before you moved to Lyme Regis?

I did a degree in English literature in London, a post-graduate degree in education from Cambridge University and taught English in Tanzania and Leamington Spa before arriving in Mozambique in 1994. I stayed in Maputo for 13 years, teaching literature at the university, training teachers and writing film scripts. It was a really interesting and positive time to be there – when I arrived the civil war had just ended and people were very keen to start rebuilding their lives. There was a great sense of possibility and so much to get involved in.

● WHAT was it like working in the film industry in Southern Africa?

I started writing English subtitles for the major film company in Mozambique and was asked if I'd like to try writing a script. What a dream! The company gave me lots of valuable feedback and were extremely encouraging – conditions that were perfect for waking up my dormant creativity. I've tried to replicate this kind of environment in my writing groups.

● YOU also wrote "Lesser Known Lyme Regis"? Bee Painton at Serendip suggested I should write it, as she didn't have anything up-to-date and reliable to offer visitors. I loved getting to know the town really well and interviewing people for the book – there are so many passionate and interesting people in Lyme. It took ages to write though, as many of the best stories (anything to do with smugglers and underground tunnels and hidden chambers) were so hard to prove. I lived in fear of perpetuating myths. In a way, it was a relief to return to fiction!

I came to live in Lyme with my five-year-old daughter and so my first priority was to find work that fit-

● WHAT inspired you to set up the Black Dog Writing Group?

I came to live in Lyme with my five-year-old daughter and so my first priority was to find work that fitted around her. For the first year I worked as a carer but missed being around people involved with books and writing. My main loves were teaching and writing fiction so I decided to put these together and teach creative writing.

● HOW does one join the writing group?

I currently run five groups and see some writers individually. I teach a structured course, introducing the elements of fiction such as plot, dialogue, point of view and characterization. We also work hard on developing a writing habit and ignoring the mean snippets of our inner critic.

Creative writing is a wonderful subject to teach as people gain in confidence and ability remarkably quickly and the groups become very close. You get to know and trust each other very well when you share writing. I also see several individuals who can't join a group or who are more interested in working on a specific project such as a novel or memoir.

● HOW often do the groups meet?

We meet once a week. Every year I teach three blocks of ten sessions, following the school terms. We start a new group every January and then the group stays together. If anyone would like to go on the waiting list, all the details can be found on my website: www.blackdogwriting.co.uk. Each block costs £100.

● THE writing group has released several books?

I produce a book of "Stories from the Black Dog" every December. This year will be the sixth volume. All the students submit their best work; it's a real thrill for everyone to see their stories in print and the book makes a very handy Christmas present!

● WHICH three people would you most like to discuss literature with?

I tend to enjoy books by people I'd like to meet; wise people who I feel could teach me about life as well as literature. My current top three are probably Marilynne Robinson, Elizabeth Strout, Tove Jansson and Sarah Waters. (Sorry, maths was never my strong suit!)

Town Mill hopes action at Lynch pathway will get underway soon

FOLLOWING complaints about the current condition of the Lynch pathway and overgrown vegetation in the River Lim, Lyme Regis, the Town Mill Trust have said they hope action will get underway soon.

Residents have taken to social networking site Facebook to comment on overgrown vegetation in the river around the Lynch pathway, which leads to the Town Mill, and the town council has also raised concerns about the dangerous condition of the pathway itself, which could cost tens of thousands to repair.

Chairman of the Town Mill Trust, Gary Willis, has now given an update on the situation and action which he hopes will get underway shortly.

He said: "The article on the Lynch path in last week's View From (August 5th) was very timely and readers may be interested in the action we hope will get under way soon."

"The Town Mill Trust has been concerned about the state of the river wall for some years; we have put effort into keeping the leat intact, and have also been involved in works to the Lynch wall with others some years back. However, as all can see from the photo in last week's paper, the Lynch wall needs some serious

By FRANCESCA EVANS
francesca@pemedial.co.uk

attention.

The deterioration of the wall would have a direct impact on the Town Mill, but it would also significantly impact the old town of Lyme Regis and all those who use the Lynch path on a regular basis.

"The impasse over the last few years has been caused by the various authorities arguing about who has responsibility for the maintenance of the wall and, as a consequence, avoiding any action. The final killer for all action was the conclusion from the various levels of local government that the responsibility should reside with the last private owners of the mill back in the early 20th century – find their descendants if you can!

"In the last year I have tried to pursue a different approach, one of mutual self-interest – we are all interested in the survival of the Lynch and the Lynch path and we should ignore ownership and simply agree to co-operate for the common good and do something to halt the inevitable deterioration.

"The Town Mill Trust made some progress early this year by getting a meeting of the various players in order to find a way forward. In reality this only happened as a result of the help of Oliver Letwin MP and support of town, district and county councillor Daryl Turner. Those present at the meeting – Dorset County Council, West Dorset District Council, the Environment Agency, Lyme Regis Town Council and the Town Mill Trust – agreed to work together to improve the situation.

"Due to the hard work of Carmel Wilkinson at DCC over the last few months, an agreement is very nearly in place, the support of one of the authorities is still needed.

"Once the agreement is finalised the wild vegetation along the Lynch from the Town Mill to Gosling Bridge will be removed, hopefully by that by the end of August, after which a full condition report can be pulled together. The Town Mill, as the junior member of this partnership and with limited reserves, has agreed to contribute an equal share to this first phase of the work and we will be approaching those who value the Lynch to join us in fundraising for the £1,500-£2,000 contribution we have committed to.

"If you have ideas on fundraising approaches please get in touch with me via Sarah at the Town Mill office and we will organise a meet up to agree the way forward."

Councillor Turner recently reported that removing vegetation around the Lynch could cost around £7,000 and full repairs could then total £80,000.

Consider other road users on Lyme's busy streets, say police

POLICE have advised drivers to consider other road users and to adhere to road markings and signs on Lyme Regis' busy streets during the summer.

The advice came after an incident on Sunday in which the driver of a car punched and dented the side of a campervan after an argument in Church Street.

At around 4pm, when Church Street was heavily congested, a vehicle believed to be a silver Vauxhall Zafira was seen leaving the town centre and heading east bound when the driver became involved in a heated exchange of words whilst passing a campervan. Following the argument, the silver car drew alongside the campervan and the male driver punched the bodywork of the campervan, causing a dent.

The narrow street often causes tension for both drivers and pedestrians during the busy summer months, with traffic sometimes becoming jammed for prolonged periods.

Police would encourage all drivers to take extra time and to consider other road users at this busy time of year.

A spokesperson said: "Paying particular attention to road markings will assist you and others to negotiate our narrow streets."

"Keep clear markings on the road are there for a reason, so please do not wait on top of them. Likewise, the give way sign and markings at the approach into Church Street from Charmouth Road are designed so that traffic entering the narrow section must give way to traffic exiting the town."

Police investigate purse theft

POLICE investigating a purse theft in Lyme Regis are appealing for witnesses to come forward with a CCTV image of the suspect having now been released.

At around 2.25pm on Wednesday, July 22nd a female shopper accidentally left her handbag on the floor at Harbour Stores in Cobb Road.

The owner realised the error about 15 minutes later and returned to the shop to find her handbag but noticed her purse was missing. The purse contained bank cards, personal documents and items and a small amount of cash.

Lifeboat crew called to fatal incident at West Bexington

A MAN died after being pulled from the sea by Lyme Regis lifeboat crew.

The crew were called to West Bexington on Friday evening following reports of three people in difficulties in choppy conditions. A man in his 40s had entered the water to rescue a child, reportedly his son, which he did successfully before getting into difficulties himself.

The man was found by the crew in the water some 30 metres offshore. He was lifted aboard the lifeboat and all three members of the crew – helmsman Murray Saunders, Tim Edwards and Tom Wallis – applied CPR.

He was then winched aboard Rescue 106, the coastguard helicopter from Portland, and taken to hospital in Dorchester but was pronounced dead on arrival.

The child and a woman were also taken to hospital by land but were said to be doing well.

Fisherman captures rare sighting of leatherback turtle in Lyme Bay

LYME Regis fisherman John King captured on camera a rare sighting of a huge leatherback turtle in Lyme Bay.

He said: "It was just another lovely day in Lyme Bay, we were catching mackerel and enjoying the sunshine when all of a sudden this monster came up from the depths and surfaced right alongside the boat with a barrel jellyfish in its jaws."

"These jellyfish can weigh up to 75lbs but it was completely dwarfed by this beautiful turtle that was at least seven feet long. My passengers and I just stared at the scene in front of us and afterwards we all felt extremely privileged to have witnessed such a sight.

"These turtles eat jellyfish as they cross the Atlantic on the Gulf stream but unfortunately they don't make it back across and I'm sorry to say he's destined to die here and get washed up on a beach somewhere."

Lyme girl returns from Oz for wedding

FORMER Lyme Regis resident Zoe Evans returned to her hometown from Melbourne, Australia, to be married on Saturday.

Zoe, the daughter of View From editor Philip Evans and his wife Jackie, married Barry Cunningham, son of Paul and Carmel Cunningham of Galway, Ireland, at St Michael's Parish Church on Saturday. The couple met when Zoe was travelling in Cairns, Australia, and they now live permanently in Melbourne.

The bride - wearing a unique, sweetheart neckline dress with an impressive tulle and lace skirt decorated with pale pink flowers - was joined by her younger sister, Francesca, as maid of honour, and friends Christina Harris, from Portsmouth, and Kaia Davis, from Melbourne, as bridesmaids. Her cousin's daughter, Jessica Dancox, was the flower girl.

The groom's best man was Matty Menchin, a friend from Australia, and groomsmen were Conor Mckeown, from Ireland, and Chris Maloy, from Germany. William Dancox, son of the bride's cousin, acted as usher.

The service was led by the Reverend Jane Skinner with readings by Francesca and Barry's sister, Jennifer. The congregation also surprised the bride's father by singing "Happy Birthday" to him.

The ceremony was followed by the wedding breakfast and an evening reception for more than 120 guests, held in glorious sunshine in a marquee at Lyme Regis Football Club. Several guests travelled from across the globe to join the celebrations, including a large contingent from Ireland and friends and family from Australia, Germany, Greece and Portugal.

The newlyweds have now set off for their honeymoon in Bali and Singapore, after which they will return to Melbourne.

Lyme Regis enters historic relationship with communities across the Atlantic

A NEW "Historic Atlantic Triangle" has been formed with the tripling of Lyme Regis, its existing twin town of St George's in Bermuda, and Jamestown, Virginia.

Lyme Regis Town Council, The Corporation of St George and the Jamestown Rediscovery Foundation (Preservation Virginia) have committed to establishing a sustainable and mutually beneficial relationship.

This three-way relationship is based on the important historic ties created during the development of the British colony in the Americas at Jamestown in 1607 and beyond.

For many years it has been an aspiration amongst members of the communities in Lyme Regis and St George's, which were officially twinned in 1996, to secure a meaningful and mutually beneficial relationship with Jamestown, Virginia.

Little progress had been made as the site of the original James Fort, which subsequently became Jamestown, was considered to have been lost by erosion into the James River.

Since 1994, under the leadership of Dr William Kelso CBE, FSA, director of research and interpretation of the Jamestown Rediscovery Project in Virginia, a team has not only located the site of the original James Fort but has now recovered over two million artefacts, many of which relate to the early days of the settlement and date from the early 17th century.

Not only did Jamestown become the first permanent English settlement and seat of representative government in North America but was also the site where English America began and also witnessed the formation of the British Empire.

It is also the place where English settlers, Native Americans and enslaved Africans came and lived together for the first time. The 22 acres have been under the stewardship of Preservation Virginia since 1893.

Former Mayor of Lyme Regis and West Dorset MP, Admiral Sir George Somers, a founder member of the Virginia Company, led the third supply fleet of nine ships in 1609 to relieve the ailing Jamestown settlement.

His flagship "Sea Venture", with 150 settlers on board, was hit by a hurricane, separated from the rest of the fleet and, after three days in the hurricane, Sir George managed to steer it on to coral less than a mile offshore of the uninhabited island of Bermuda, known then as the "Isle of Devils".

Not only did Sir George and his colleagues claim Bermuda for the British, leading to settlement in 1612, but he and his crew built two new ships, "Deliverance" and "Patience", allowing them to continue their journey to rescue the ailing Jamestown settlement at the end of the Starving Time in May 1610, when only about 60 of the original 400 settlers were still alive.

Sir George's heroic efforts saved many of the prominent early Jamestown settlers who were on board "Sea Venture" and at Jamestown. His contribution to early America was crucial, without which Jamestown could have easily been abandoned ending British America.

Sir George returned to Bermuda on "Patience" in the summer of 1610 for additional supplies but died there. His heart is buried in Somers Gardens in St George's and his body was returned to England landing at the Cobb in Lyme Regis and was buried in his hometown of Whitchurch Canonorum, near Charmouth.

The three communities have now resolved to form a sustainable and mutually beneficial relationship between the three ancient maritime communities, to be known as the Historic Atlantic Triangle. The current Mayor of Lyme Regis, Councillor Owen Lovell, and Mayor of St George's, Quinell Francis, signed the resolution during a recent twinning visit from a party from St George's to Lyme Regis.

This is designed not only for the celebration, exchange and furtherance of historic knowledge, research and experiences but also to provide many potential shared benefits including:

- Enhanced opportunities to market and benefit from cultural tourism especially between the UK, Bermuda and North America
- Providing a better understanding of our shared historical and cultural ties
- Developing beneficial collaborative activities initiatives and activities.

It is also hoped that the new relationship will give an added impetus to the existing twinning relationship between Lyme and St George's, which celebrates its 20th anniversary in 2016 for which it is planned to unveil a new statue of Sir George in Lyme Regis. Confirmation of future initiatives and commemorative events will be announced in the coming months.

Richard D. Spurling, chairman of the St George's Foundation, said: "This tripling is a unique triangular relationship representing the challenges, struggles and hardships of the founding of early British America.

"To use Sir Winston Churchill's famous remark - so much today is owed by so many to only a few brave souls.

"The leveraging of this relationship will lead to many opportunities for Lyme Regis, St Georges and Jamestown and is a truly exciting development for cultural tourism."

Quinell Francis, Mayor of St George's, added: "Sir George Somers has played a significant part in the history to what we now know as the Historic Atlantic Triangle.

"We in the town of St George are quite happy to be a part of this connection with Lyme Regis and Jamestown, Virginia and look forward to many visiting the home of Sir George Somers' heart, which is buried at Somers Gardens."

Elizabeth S. Kostelny, CEO of Preservation Virginia, commented: "This tripling reminds of us that connections are important in history and for our future.

"Preservation Virginia is excited about the potential this relationship has to share the history and support cultural tourism between the three communities."

Councillor Lovell added: "Our tripling will benefit all of us by attracting more visitors who we hope will leave with a better appreciation and understanding of the contribution made by Sir George Somers and the other founders of British America, Bermuda and the British Empire."

B Sharp to create and perform custom music for Candles on the Cobb event

YOUTH music organisation B Sharp, based in Lyme Regis, is offering an intensive summer holiday project for singers from August 24th to 30th, collaborating on a special commission for performances during Candles On The Cobb weekend.

The project is an opportunity for all young, keen and committed singers from the region to collaboratively compose and perform original music with top-level musicians, for the iconic Candles On The Cobb event, in which 5,000 candles are used to light up Lyme's historic harbour, each sponsored in memory of a loved one.

The inspirational composer and music leader John K. Miles, who has worked with B Sharp and many young participants over the years, will be working on and bringing a great deal of experience to the project.

The project will also be joined by professional guest musicians Deborah Jordan (vocal coach), Winston Clifford (drums), Dave Manington (bass) and Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra string players, Kate Turnbull (violin) and Roberto Sorrentino (cello).

B Sharp director Fran Williams said: "This is a really special opportunity for singing enthusiasts to help create and sing in this commission for Candles On The Cobb.

"Working with John to write this legacy piece of music and then sing for a crowd of thousands, as the candles are being lit on Sunday, August 30th will be a fantastic and rare experience. We will also have a more intimate candle-lit performance in St Michael's Parish Church on Saturday evening.

"We already have some singers who have worked with us before and know how rewarding our projects are. I would like to encourage anyone who loves to sing but perhaps hasn't worked with us before, to sign up and be part of this project."

For those that cannot take part in the whole week, on Friday, August 28th there will be an opportunity for young singers (primary school Year 5 and above) to learn the music that has been written and join the performances for Candles On The Cobb. Enrolment details can be found on www.bsharp.uk.org or to find out more and book a place, contact Fran Williams on 07968 177663.

Tickets are on sale now for the special candle-lit premiere performance in St Michael's Parish Church on Saturday, August 29th at Lyme Regis Tourist Information Centre (call 01297 442138).

Help needed for Candles

LIGHTING teams are needed for the spectacular Candles on the Cobb event on Sunday, August 30th.

Volunteers are needed to help light the 5,000 candles around the historic Cobb harbour. Those interested in taking part in this unique event should attend a social gathering and training night at Lyme Regis Power Boat Club, Monmouth Beach, on Sunday, August 23rd from 7pm.

Lighting teams of three or four people are needed.

If you are unable to attend but would still like to be in a team, email Candles on the Cobb secretary, Les Herbert, on lestina@sky.com or call 07568 168 194.

Council worker Elaine takes on 750m open water swim

TOWN council worker Elaine Pawsey was so fed up with holding her husband's bag while he swam competitively, that she thought she'd have a go herself.

Elaine, who is a senior administrative assistant at Lyme Regis Town Council, took part in her first open water swim at Dorney Lake, Eton.

The mum of four and grandmother of nine successfully swam the WomenOnly Challenge, a gruelling 750-metre course around the Olympic rowing venue in Berkshire.

Elaine, who lives in Raymonds Hill, has watched husband Tony swimming competitively for several decades and although she swims regularly in a local pool, she has never had the confidence to take on an open water swim.

She trained hard for several months before the swim and took extra lessons in the lake to help get her through the challenge.

Tony, who switched roles to cheer Elaine on from the lakeside, said: "I'm really proud of her. A year ago, a few lengths of the pool was her limit.

"She said she will have another go and next time she would do it in support of a charity."

Residents take part in life-saving training

EAGER Lyme Regis residents took part in a hands-on training experience learning how to use the potentially life-saving equipment of a defibrillator.

The training is vital as a new defibrillator is to be installed outside the harbourmasters office on the Cobb, allowing members of the public access in case of an emergency such as a heart attack.

The purchase of the new equipment has initiated by Lyme Regis Development Trust and has been funded by a number of local organisations.

One person who received the training from members of the Lyme Regis fire crew and ambulance service was president of the Rotary Club of Lyme Regis, John Bartlett, who last year suffered a heart attack himself and was resuscitated after three defibrillators shocks. John and his wife Denise were just two of a steady stream of people who decided to take 20 minutes out of their day and learn how to possibly save a life.

The defibrillator will be housed in a special cabinet, which keeps the gel on the equipment moist and useable. The cabinet will be locked with a keypad and if the emergency services need to be contacted, the emergency dispatcher will have the code to access the cabinet.

Defibrillator installed at Charmouth caravan park

WOOD Farm Caravan and Camping Park in Charmouth has just had a defibrillator installed in its entrance in case of emergencies.

The location of the potentially life-saving equipment is registered with the emergency services so it can be used for any emergency, such as a heart attack, in the surrounding area.

Kate Fisher from the ambulance service is hosting an awareness session on the use of the equipment and anyone who is interested is welcome to attend.

The session will be held at 10am on Tuesday, September 8th at the park. If anyone is interested in attending, call 01297 561811.

Charmouth show held in scorching sunshine

■ PRIZEWINNERS: Successful entrants at the Charmouth Gardeners annual summer show

GREEN fingered gardeners in Charmouth showed off their skills at the annual village show, which once again proved to be a huge success.

The event saw over 500 exhibits in 90 classes compete for 18 trophies, from best exhibit in fruit and vegetables to achievements in photography. The show was split over two venues in the village and St Andrew's Community Hall was packed on a scorching Saturday afternoon, as show goers waited for the results to be announced.

Show secretary Pauline Bonner said: "The weather seemed to encourage visitor numbers and the displays were wonderful in both halls."

Ron Dampier walked away with a whole heap of awards, including best in the sweet pea class and the Grace Laker cup, which is awarded to the person who achieves the highest points for fruit and vegetable exhibits.

"Congratulations must go to the winners, entrants and especially to the Charmouth Gardeners committee and helpers who work so tirelessly to ensure the show's success," added Pauline.

Pauline hopes that next years show will be equally well supported and with the same terrific weather.

Shelley Larcombe, who runs the group, would also like to thank all of the supporters who helped them raise £500 at an auction held at The Ship Inn recently. The money raised went towards arts and craft items to help the children make costumes and a banner for their carnival entry (pictured above).

Wacky Lyme Lympics to return to beach

THE wacky Lyme Lympics games will return to the beach on Wednesday, August 26th.

The Lympics were first held to commemorate the London Olympics in 2012 but were such a hit with residents and visitors alike that the alternative games have been held every year since.

So if you fancy strapping yourself to a pair of four man skis and falling about on the sand, or perhaps tying a bucket to your head while your child throws wet sponges at you, there's something for all the family in this year's programme of events.

The Lyme Lympics will start at 5pm on the main sandy beach outside the Harbour Inn and Royal Standard, with games suitable for all ages.

The children's tug o' war will open proceedings, with other events to include a mermaid race, human table football, and tossing the caber among other crazy frolics.

■ ALMOST THERE: Long distance kayakers Lee Taylor and Katie Ellis pictured in Lyme Regis, their penultimate stop on a trip around the UK coast

Kayakers call into Lyme Regis

TWO long distance kayakers circumnavigating the UK made Lyme Regis their penultimate call last week before completing their 2,000 mile voyage.

Friends Lee Taylor, 40, a tree surgeon from South Somerset, and Katie Ellis, 27, a teacher from Cornwall, set off from Falmouth on April 4th. They travelled clockwise around the coast, camping overnight at each stop. During their trip they visited up to 40 RNLI lifeboat stations, including Lyme Regis.

The pair have been raising money for the lifeboat charity and SALVE, an international charity helping children in Uganda.

Lee said: "It's been a great experience, but anyone thinking of long distance kayaking must be properly equipped with VHF radio, a personal locator beacon, GPS and flares. The sea is a beautiful place, but conditions can change very quickly."

Lee and Katie left Lyme Regis last Thursday, aiming complete their voyage in Falmouth.

ArtsFest organisers secure sponsor for sculpture trail

ORGANISERS of Lyme Regis ArtsFest are pleased to announce that one of their three sculpture trails being developed for this September's event is being sponsored by Lyme Bay Holidays.

Five sculptures are planned for the East Cliff trail being sponsored by the holiday-let company, with three already almost completed. The other two are scheduled to be installed by the beginning of September in time for the annual festival.

St Michael's Church had given permission for a woven willow installation on their cleft chestnut fence called "Vibrant Skyline". This was the first work to be finished following nine visits by the artist over several weeks in the spring.

Permission has also been obtained from West Dorset District Council and Natural England to undertake land art sculptures near the new sea defences, including the first to be completed there, which is called "Primordial Turmoil".

John Calder of the ArtsFest team explained that the money from the sponsorship deal will assist in the ongoing care and management of the sculptures, some of which may yet be allowed to remain over an extended period.

Jim Matthews, director of Lyme Bay Holidays, said he would also be able to ensure that hundreds of visiting families obtain a free copy of the ArtsFest brochure in their arrival packs.

Lyme Regis ArtsFest is now in its thirteenth year but this is the first time a sculpture trail has been part of the programme, and Mr Matthews said he thought it was a great time to step up and help the new initiative to gather momentum.

n Elizabeth Fortescue is the latest artist to join the ArtsFest sculpture trail with an innovative installation of four flags near the Town Mill.

Her bold and energetic paintings have been transferred into printed images on flags to give them a new dimension (pictured above).

As well as making this contribution to the ArtsFest sculpture trail, Elizabeth will show new work inspired by the this year's festival's "In Transition" theme at the Town Mill Malthouse in September.

LymeLetters

Fireworks were spectacular!

I WOULD just like to thank Harry May Boat Trips and the Lyme Regis Regatta and Carnival Committee for the utterly fantastic firework display on Thursday evening on the main beach at Lyme Regis.

I have never seen or heard anything like it anywhere; at the end of the glorious track "Comfortably Numb" by Pink Floyd, all of those around me in Langmoor Gardens almost appeared to have a near religious experience - we were all left stunned.

The show was advertised as loud and spectacular and that was definitely right.

Thanks you all again - well done Lyme Regis.

Leah Jones, Uplyme

Please send your letters to Francesca Evans at View From Newspapers, Unit 3 St Michael's Business Centre, Church Street, Lyme Regis, Dorset DT7 3DB or email francesca@pemedial.co.uk

The views expressed in letters are those of the author and not necessarily of this newspaper the theme in a more abstract way. Images range from the power of the sea to rain drops on a lens, snow in Iceland, and mist in the vales.

The exhibition will be accompanied by an art trail in the town bringing artwork in an approachable way to the wider public.

During the exhibition's run at the Malthouse, Shed founder Chelsea Davine will also welcome visitors to her informal open studio at the Town Mill's neighbouring community room.

As she explains: "I spend most of my year painting in Barcelona, a hot, humid, bustling city. It is a privilege and a joy to be able to spend a few weeks every year in Lyme Regis working in a different light and air.

"Much of my work is based on my memories of home, the coast, the cliffs, sea and country. My most recent work is a continuation of my fascination in capturing light 'Dawn to Dusk'.

"I'll be working on this series at my open studio, so please drop by to see me."

The exhibition will be open daily from 10.30am to 5.30pm, admission is free and more details can be found at www.townmillartsguild.com or www.theshedgallery.com

Uplyme Church to host art exhibition

ST Peter and St Paul's Church in Uplyme will host an exhibition and sale of art on Friday and Saturday, August 28th and 29th.

The exhibition will be open both days from 10.30am to 4.30pm and will support people living in Zambia.

Uplyme Church has been in partnership with the Brethren in Christ Church, Zambia, since 2011 and has donated more than £30,000 which has enabled residents of Zambia to locate and drill eight boreholes with water pumps, bringing clean and safe water to local communities, transforming the lives of over 1,700 people. This has all been possible through the charity Tearfund.

The church is committed to continue raising funds for this project and money made at the art exhibition, which will include 35 local artists both progression and amateur, will go towards this fund.

Some of the professional artists taking part include Jake Winkle, Terry Whitworth, Gregory Wellman, Lynda White and Linda Hampson. There will also be a display of children's art work with the theme "Water" and a demonstration in acrylic by Gregory Wellman titled "Atmospheric Portrait" on the Friday afternoon.

This demonstration is a ticket only event so to book a place call Sue Wells on 07912 272 102.

The exhibition is free and there will be refreshments available.

View from the churches

FOR most local churches, the summer means a winding down in weekly church life.

The congregations are significantly depleted as folk go on holiday. However, this is not the case in Lyme Regis. The massive influx of visitors is reflected in the Sunday morning congregations.

This is certainly true of ourselves in the Baptist Church, a dynamic enhanced by the presence of the United Beach Mission teams using ourselves and Bethany Chapel's premises.

Of course, this reflects much of town life in Lyme. For us the lean period is found outside of the holiday seasons. This can provoke a bit of a peak and trough kind of experience of life.

True, many may have mixed feeling about this reality; some preferring the quiet months, while others thrive on the busy periods. For those in the retail and hospitality trades, the lean period can in fact be a hard time. This can provoke a sort of peak and trough rhythm to our lives, highs and lows.

The message upon which the church is established speaks into this. Jesus presents the possibility of a consistency in life based not upon the ebb and flow of external dynamics. Jesus offers a stability regardless of one's external circumstances; a self-awareness and identity that enables peace in fair weather or storm.

Too often our hopes and aspirations, our very moods and well-being, is invested in temporary things that can so easily let us down. People, events, situations, things promised and things desired. Jesus says: "If you hold to my teaching, you are really my disciples. Then you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free."

A quick update on church events: on Thursday, August 13th and 20th at 7.30pm, Bethany Chapel is hosting a two-part DVD presentation about Israel's destiny by Professor Alan Linton of Bristol.

Reverend Chris Woodman, Lyme Regis Baptist Church

16th Annual WINGS & WHEELS

HENSTRIDGE • SATURDAY 29 AUGUST 2015 • GATES OPEN AT 10AM
RAISING FUNDS AND AWARENESS FOR DORSET & SOMERSET AIR AMBULANCE

It's That Time of Year Again!

AS THE August Bank Holiday draws near the small families of rabbits, who normally enjoy a bit of peace and quiet on one of our former war-time airfields, know that it's time to go on their own vacations. The former naval air station 'HMS Dipper' at Henstridge is gearing itself up for one its biggest annual events... 'Wings and Wheels'. While it may not be quite as noisy or dramatic as the wartime years when, as H.M.S Dipper, it was host to a constant procession Fleet Air Arm squadrons training and working-up; it can still see over a hundred light aircraft and scores of vintage and classic vehicles gathering on the airfield. Add to that the hundreds of visitors, and the ever early-rising teams of stewards and marshalls, and you can see why 'bunny' seeks somewhere less busy for his Saturday frolic.

August 29th is the date for your diary and it marks the sixteenth staging of this popular show which still remains a volunteer-led enterprise. Not that you would notice it since, like all aviation events, it is run within stringent guidelines by a team who have worked together for several decades. It's true that their uniforms, apart from the ATC cadets of course, are a bit on the casual side....to say the least! But between them they have organised and participated in the best part of five hundred similar venues spread over a score of airfields. It is no surprise that they take great pride in the fact that their first-aid providers have only been troubled for the occasional wasp-sting and an aspirin; the latter is usually for the 'boss' with the headache from trying to keep an eye on it all.

While every year is always something special, there is never room for any complacency in this business, this year's event is a bit extra special. For a start it is the 15th Anniversary of the Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance on whose behalf the event is staged; and, more importantly perhaps at a national level, it also marks the 75th Anniversary of the Battle of Britain.

As always G-DORS, the current helicopter, will cross over to crowd-side and her crew will be happy to give visitors a look around and to chat about her role and achievements. This is one of the rare opportunities for her supporters and admirers to get 'up-close-and-personal' to this vital piece of life-saving equipment.

The second important anniversary will be marked by the regular roar of the Merlins which power the aircraft of the BBMF. This is more than a little significant as both Spitfires and Seafires were regularly based at Henstridge and made full use of its original five runways. Needless to say the visiting Spitfire and Hurricane will not be 'landing-on'...though they may well be low enough to give that impression! As we go to press we can confirm that, although originally allocated, the BBMF's Lancaster will be unable to appear. The aircraft, now affectionately known as 'Thumper' from her 617 Sqn colour scheme, suffered a major fire in her Number 4 engine while on a pre-season practise sortie. The latest from the Flight is that she is unlikely to even begin air-testing before the end of the season.

The admission price for Wings & Wheels has been held for yet another year at just £5.00 for adult visitors. Accompanied youngsters under sixteen are welcomed free and there are no additional car-park charges. It makes for a low-cost, high-interest family day-out. And, even if you're not a plane or car enthusiast, you won't want to miss the legendary 'Joe's Barbie' for a mouth-watering munch before you stroll around the visiting aircraft. The gates open at 10am and the event winds-down around in the late afternoon with the BBMF providing the dramatic finale around 5:30pm.

Don't forget to look at page (PAPER PLEASE NUMBER) where your 'View From' newspaper has a special competition giving one lucky reader the chance to take to the air in a genuine World War 2 de Havilland Tiger Moth. And, if you arrive on the airfield before noon, your numbered copy of the day's Safety Notice may well win you a similar exciting experience in the lunch-time lucky-draw.

16th Annual WINGS & WHEELS

HENSTRIDGE • SATURDAY 29 AUGUST 2015 • GATES OPEN AT 10AM
RAISING FUNDS AND AWARENESS FOR DORSET & SOMERSET AIR AMBULANCE

From Two-Wheels To Six!

THE presence of classic and vintage vehicles at aviation events is nothing new. They can both represent the quality and infinite variety of their respective manufacturers. To put it more simply...they both look good on their own and they look even better when they can be admired together.

Even in the early years the cars and the other vintage and classic machines quickly earned their rightful place on the posters and the original fly-in was re-named as 'Wings & Wheels'. As with our pilots, the drivers are requested to 'register' in advance. Unlike many shows this is not to permit some kind of prestige-vetting; it is simply because Henstridge Airfield is somewhat 'strapped' for display space. That may seem a little peculiar since everyone knows that war-time aerodromes were nothing if not somewhat large affairs. However, most of the airfield's current real-estate is located across the runway on north-side and is therefore a definite 'no-go' area for public events.

Despite this obvious lack of available grass, the organisers...by some careful planning, some tight parking and more than a bit of luck...have never had to decline a would-be applicant. Indeed, on those occasions when a rare or worthwhile exhibit turns-up un-announced (out-of-the-blue like some of the aircraft) the stewards somehow manage to find those extra few square-feet to display it.

The dreaded 'Rules and Regulations' are kept to a minimum and everyone works hard to ensure that the day is as informal, relaxed and safe as possible. 'Wings & Wheels' are justifiably proud of their reputation for being a truly old-fashioned, traditional and, above all, friendly event. So, whether you are into A.J.S., Armstrong Siddeley and Alvis or prefer Zephyrs and Zodiacs...the chances are you'll find them at Henstridge on Bank Holiday Saturday. And 'yes' there's always the chance that there will be an olive-green GMC 'deuce and a half' amid all that chrome!

WIN a Flight in a War Time Tiger Moth

The publishers of View From newspapers are delighted to be able to offer you another chance to win an exclusive and exciting prize. In conjunction with our friends at Wings and Wheels, we have secured a further opportunity for one lucky reader to follow in the slipstream of the Battle of Britain pilots. You too can take to the same summer skies over Dorset and Somerset. This is your chance to win an AIR EXPERIENCE FLIGHT IN A LEGENDARY WAR-TIME 'TIGER MOTH'. ...this much loved little aeroplane was the probably the first aircraft that the fighter-aces encountered as they began their training.

Our lucky winner last year, herself no stranger to aviation, described it as... "Simply the experience of a lifetime!" Your pilot on the day will be one of the top-flight trainers from the airfield-based Tiger Moth Training (www.tigermothtraining.co.uk) and your aircraft will be one of their three immaculately restored World War Two examples based on the airfield. YOU might be the one to be flying over Henstridge on the very same day as the historic Hurricane and Spitfire from the BBMF!

Just answer the simple questions and return to our offices: c/o Rob Coombe, Wings & Wheels competition, View From Newspapers, Unit 3 St Michael's Business Centre, Church Street, Lyme Regis, Dorset, DT7 3DB before the closing date of Friday, 21st August 2015. Winners will be picked at random, editors decision is final.

HENSTRIDGE • SATURDAY 29 AUGUST 2015 • GATES OPEN AT 10AM

Dorset & Somerset Air Ambulance

DORSET and Somerset Air Ambulance is a registered charity which receives no direct funding from the Government or the National Lottery. They rely on public donations to keep flying. Since their launch in March 2000, they have flown over 10,700 missions, many of them life-saving. They currently operate a Eurocopter EC135 helicopter from their airbase at Henstridge Airfield on the Dorset/Somerset border. From there, they can be at any point in the two counties within 19 minutes. More importantly, the helicopter can then take a patient to any one of the Major Trauma Centres in the South West within a further 20 minutes. The charity's operational costs are over £2 million a year and the approximate cost per mission is £2,500.

It's definitely an exciting time for the charity which celebrates 15 years of service to the people of Dorset and Somerset in 2015. Plans to replace its existing aircraft with an AgustaWestland 169 (AW169) at the end of 2016 are on well on track after it recently received its formal Certification by the European Aviation Safety Agency. The aircraft was selected following an extensive evaluation process by the Charity and their clinical partners. It has a much larger cabin area that will give clinicians better in-flight access to the patient, more space for advanced equipment and the possibility of carrying 2 stretcher patients if required. The aircraft will also come readily equipped to undertake night operations.

Two years ago, the charity sponsored a unique three year MSc Advanced Paramedic Practice (Critical Care) education programme, in partnership with the University of Hertfordshire, the South Western Ambulance Service NHS Foundation Trust and a number of NHS Hospital Trusts across the region. The programme is unique as all the education and training of the paramedics has taken place locally by academics and visiting lecturers. Doctors and consultants from across the region were brought in for three days a week, to share their skills and provide mentoring both on land and in the air.

As well as continuing to deliver fantastic pre-hospital care to patients in need, the paramedics have been studying hard. Now in their second year, they have ALL completed their Post Graduate Certificate in Advanced Paramedic Practice (Critical Care) which means they are now fully qualified as 'Specialist Paramedics in Critical Care' and are currently studying for their Diploma.

In August 2015, the charity's Trustees approved a proposal for Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance to move towards providing a Critical Care Team capability, consisting of a Critical Care Paramedic and Senior Qualified Consultant, seven days a week. This was taken, on the basis of the extremely valuable experience of the last two years, where the paramedics have been working alongside these consultants as part of their post graduate studies. This is directly in line with both the Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance strategic vision for clinical excellence and also the South West Regional Collaboration Strategy for the delivery of pre-hospital critical and enhanced care, which was published in June this year.

This means that by the end of 2016, they will have the highest level of pre-hospital emergency care for the most seriously ill patients, in one of the most advanced air ambulance helicopters in the country.

What's Coming In Next?

VISITORS who regularly attend airshows, but have not previously been to a 'Fly-in', may well be left wondering why there is no official programme or timetable. The answer is that no-one knows which aeroplane will be the next one to call 'finals' before touching down on Henstridge's runways. The pilots will have been politely requested to make a booking in advance, but arrival times are never specified. The simple fact is that to do so would be a near impossibility. The aircraft can vary from vintage pre-war biplanes to the latest sophisticated tourers...with home-builds and micro-lights in there for good measure. Their flights can be an easy 'five-minutes-downhill' from Compton Abbas or a long haul in from East Anglia or deepest Devon.

If those were not enough in the way of complications, then there are always the fliers who make up their mind to 'drop-in' on the day. Everyone is always welcome and, in the last fifteen years of Wings & Wheels, no pilot has had to be turned away.

Then there is that final deciding factor from which no aviation event can escape...the good-old British weather. Light aircraft are obviously particularly prone to the whims of 'the bloke upstairs'. If the Metcast looks at all 'iffy' then it's not worth trying to make it in. The maxim about 'old pilots and bold pilots' applies at all times. Some aircraft are of course more susceptible than others. As the commentator often (and always politely!) points out... 'would you fancy an hour so in a 90 mph open-cockpit bi-plane on a wet morning, with a 40knot headwind and the cloud-base on the deck?'

But, when the skies are blue and the winds are light then Henstridge can, and does, attract well over a hundred planes. And what is more the public get the almost unique chance to view them 'close-up' during the regular lunch-time airpark opening and walk-round.

Sherborne Turf

ESTABLISHED for over 40 years, Sherborne Turf is situated in the picturesque village of Trent in Dorset, where we have around 150 acres of quality farmland dedicated to the production of our Trent Turf. Grown without netting, we use a blend of grasses developed over the years that will knit together to form a firm base, and leave our turf in the ground for 18 months before harvesting. It is then freshly cut to order and delivered using our own vehicles. While the trade standard for delivery is 'kerb-side', we realise that this is not always practical for our customers, and so our experienced drivers always endeavour to place the items as conveniently as possible for you, a service which is often not provided by other companies.

Although our core business is turf production, we also supply a full range of locally sourced topsoil, compost, bark and mulch. Other essential garden items include fertiliser, irrigation equipment, landscape accessories, and a full range of seed mixes to grow wildflowers and grasses for companion sowing.

Our delivery vehicles include an artic with removable forklift, a 6-wheel rigid crane lorry, and a pick up truck with trailer. We also have access to a wide range of vehicles for bulk loads of topsoil, compost and bark.

All of the staff here at Sherborne Turf have experience of the products we sell, and are happy to discuss any aspect of your garden project. Our website www.sherborneturf.co.uk contains detailed information, practical advice, and even has an interactive calculator. We are also on Facebook and Twitter, or why not give us a call on 01935 850388.

ReView - Camp Bestival 2015 - July 31st-August 2nd

LIVING IT UP AS THE SUN GOES DOWN

CAMP BESTIVAL once again lived up to it's billing as the country's official favourite family-friendly festival last weekend, with an intoxicating mix of great live music, top DJs, spoken word, comedy, a hatful of kid's entertainment of all sorts, all nicely topped off with the year's best week-end of weather.

With the site bustling on our arrival on Friday morning (the campsite opens midday on the Thursday), we set up camp and headed towards the main stage for our first major musical act of the weekend, Eliza Carthy. It's during that first journey from tent to stage that it becomes apparent just how family-friendly, and above all, fun, curators Josie and Rob Da Bank make Dorset's largest festival. Face paints and onesies everywhere adhere to the 'Wild' theme of this year's event, and side shows include dance-alongs with The Blue Coats, Punch & Judy, performances from groups including The Steelers, and the daredevil trio at the Wall of Death, plus the many and varied arts and crafts stalls.

ELIZA Carthy is a familiar face to Camp Bestival regulars, having previously performed with the folk collective Imaginary Village, and once again, her solo set thrilled a decent-sized crowd during early Friday afternoon.

Faux-Hispanic party starters The Cuban Brothers followed on the main stage with their ever-popular latin-infused dance hits, and genuine 70s legends Buzzcocks changed the tone once again, with an early evening slot of rocking three chord punk, including one of the weekends top crowd-pleasers, the timeless 'Ever Fallen In Love (With Someone You Shouldn't've)'.

Heading to the Big Top, DJ Yoda - famed for his audio/visual DJ sets - performed his first full-band live set at Camp Bestival, and along with his Breakfast of Champions (the name of his latest album, and band), did not disappoint. The group's funky guitar, heavy bass, tight horns and mix of different vocal styles meshed excellently.

Professor Green took to the stage as the sun began to set, and the rapper impressed - all the more so as the 'Lullaby' singer was battling an extreme case of food poisoning!

Friday's main stage headline act, returning after a performance as relative unknowns in 2013, was the unique classical/house group Clean Bandit. For a headline act, their set was short at about an hour, and highlighted that they'd maybe suit a headline slot with another album's worth of songs under their belts. Nonetheless, the set had the main stage field dancing, with one of the last year's biggest hits, 'Rather Be', an obvious highlight.

The fun doesn't stop on site with the main stage headlines; DJ Yoda returned to the decks, this time for a DJ set at the Bollywood tent; and the Big Top, following The Bohicas set, experienced the weird and wonderful delights of a silent disco until 3am.

SATURDAY saw another equally eclectic line-up kick off with the thought-provoking political and social poetry/rap of George the Poet. Big-voiced Alison Moyet showed that her vocals are as strong as ever, rattling through Yazoo classics 'Situation', 'Only You', solo hits including 'All Cried Out' and 'When I Was Your Girl', before a storming rendition of 'Don't Go' closed the set.

For a change of tempo, we made a visit to the Big Top, catching the end of Ekka's set. The Birmingham duo's R&B sounds showed why they may be the next household names coming from Camp Bestival, following in the footsteps of Mumford & Sons, Florence & The Machine and more.

With darkness falling, Level 42 fired up the crowd, with the apt 'Sun Goes Down (Living It Up)' a real crowd pleaser.

The Kaiser Chiefs, the festival's top billed act, closed out the Saturday night in typically riotous style. Ricky Wilson and the boys were something of a genius booking for Camp Bestival, coupling the frontman's new found levels of fame (thanks to BBC's The Voice) with teenagers, kids and parents alike, along with the familiar sing-alongs including 'Ruby' and 'I Predict A Riot'. The Chiefs' set had a good mix of newer material, and plenty early hits including 'Na na na na naa' and closing with 'Oh My God'.

Buzzcocks

SUNDAY'S line-up took the festival's genre-defying credentials to new heights, with soulful pop, Irish rock 'n' roll, modern punk, dance, rap and trance.

Thanks to a change in scheduled times, Ella Henderson took to the stage in the early afternoon, trading places with Bob Geldof. Henderson's set leaned heavily on her 2014 number 1 album 'Chapter One', and saw the former X-Factor contestant open up on some of her songs topics, closing with huge hit 'Ghost'.

One of the most exciting, and certainly heaviest, sets of the weekend came from hotly-tipped duo Slaves, whose raw punk sounds and energetic performance was a welcome change of gear.

On the other end of the previously mentioned slot-switch, Bob Geldof made to the stage in a dazzling blue-tonic suit, and preceded with an rock 'n' roll heavy, Irish inspired, swear-laden set - mid-afternoon at a 'family friendly' festival was perhaps not the most appropriate time for the famously loose lipped Boomtown Rat.

Soul II Soul really moved the crowd up a notch; their late 80s/early 90s R&B and soul sound fitting perfectly into the current retro-fad. The group closed with their biggest UK hit, the anthem 'Back to Life (However Do You Want Me)'.

From 1989 hits, the main stage moved towards a chart-smashing artist not born until 1994, Ella Eyre. The pop singer/songwriter's high-energy set was lapped up by the growing crowd, with Eyre performing the likes of Rudimental collaboration 'Waiting All Night', 'Gravity' (a recent hit with DJ Fresh) and 'Changing', another recent hit for Sigma and Paloma Faith, on which Eyre was a co-writer.

Sunday's headliner, and festival closer, was electronic trance group Underworld, famed for number 2 hit 'Born Slippy' (itself made famous by 1996 cult classic film Trainspotting). Again leaning towards the current on-trend sounds of 80s/90s house and electronica, Underworld's beat-heavy set was (obviously) hugely lacking in any sing-alongs, something that all of the best headline acts at this sort of festival should probably have.

Camp Bestival has developed a reputation since its inception in 2008, for a spectacular finale, and this year was no different. The incredible firework display, set off from on and around Lulworth Castle, was a sight to behold, and perfectly timed with Rob Da Bank's soundtrack accompaniment. You can watch the full display online at <https://youtu.be/6NYUElmlwlo>

What happens to your 'grey matter' when you retire?

By Claire Spreadbury, Press Association

"Retirement means you have to 'reinvent' yourself," says Annie Kaszina, coach and author of Do You Choose Your Dog More Carefully Than Your Husband? "For some people that works really well, for others it does not; they struggle to find a sense of meaning and purpose. They become less valuable in society's eyes. One of the questions we hear all the time is: 'What do you do?' It's a question that presupposes your worth and interests are intimately connected with your working role, not who you are."

"While the capacity for heavy physical work may decline with the years, the capacity for creative thinking does not. June Brown is a case in point. She is perfectly capable of deciding for herself when she needs to scale back. The country needs more icons like her and Bruce Forsyth in the public eye, to remind us that older just means more years on the clock. It doesn't have to mean physically or mentally infirm.

"Besides, working longer may well also save the Government money. An interesting report from the French government suggests that people who work longer are significantly less likely to suffer from dementia."

Walking Football

Walking Football

LOVE Football? Want to stay Active? Walking Football, a slower version of the beautiful game!

The game is small sided, with no running on or off the ball, very little contact and kick-ins instead of throw- ins. With less stress on the body and no real sudden change of direction or cutting movements, the game allows participants to play in a safe environment.

Walking football has become increasingly popular and is designed to help people live an active lifestyle, as well as to support getting people back into football who have stopped playing due to age or injury.

Long-term benefits can include reduced heart rate and blood pressure and better mobility.

As well as offering health benefits walking Football offers social benefits - the opportunity for participants to meet new people, prevent isolation and create interaction for individuals and small groups.

Sessions are taking place across the three counties for men and women keen to come back to playing the game or brand new and wanting to stay healthy, make friends and socialise. For those who want competition they are also developing a Walking Football League across the region.

For details on how to join in with sessions in Dorset or to enter a team into the league please contact Justine Mosley at Justine.mosley@dorsetfa.com or 01202 688277.

Bymead House Nursing & Residential Home

BYMEAD House Nursing & Residential Home in Charmouth has been owned by Susan Blacklock - a qualified nurse with a background specialising in Community Nursing - for 20 years.

Her philosophy is to provide truly individual and therapeutic support including complimentary therapies such as acupuncture, to whatever degree is wanted or required.

She has always believed that this support should extend to the families and friends of those living at Bymead House as they form an important integral part of the care network within the home.

Bymead has always been proactive with the care provision and facilities on offer to the residents.

We have recently achieved accreditation for the 'Gold Standards Framework in Care Homes', this enhances the excellent care we already provide and is part of a national initiative to achieve the best quality of life for our residents particularly towards the end of life.

A very important part of the support Bymead provides is their extensive activities programme. In line with their philosophy of holistic care, these activities are tailored to suit the individual needs of their residents.

The varied weekly programme reflects hobbies the residents may have had in their previous home and any new interests are encouraged and supported. Also outings to favourite destinations are chosen by the residents.

Sue Bartlett-Hall, activities co-ordinator, has been instrumental for many years in taking forward Susan Blacklock's vision of the therapeutic importance of social activities in relation to the happiness and wellbeing of people living within a care home.

Using local suppliers has always been important to Bymead House, this ensures that Bymead have frequent deliveries of fresh local produce each week enabling them to provide a varied, nutritious and tasty menu and special diets are also catered for.

Bymead continues to grow and develop as a vital care provider in the community.

Residents are encouraged to make the rooms their own personal space with favourite pieces of furniture, pictures and paintings.

Old time roots music from 'Crazy Legs' Gordie MacKeeman

THE AWARD-WINNING Gordie MacKeeman and His Rhythm Boys will be serving up old-time roots music at Bridport Arts Centre on Wednesday, August 12th at 8pm. MacKeeman has earned the nickname "Crazy Legs" for his quirky dance style delivered as he sings bluegrass songs accompanied by Peter Cann on guitar and multi-instrumentalists Thomas Webb and Mark Geddes.

Hailing from Prince Edward Island on Canada's east coast, Gordie MacKeeman & His Rhythm Boys serve up old-time roots music with an energy level that practically yanks you out of your seat by the collar.

The band state a huge range of musical influences from old time fiddle, to swing, Celtic and bluegrass to heavy metal. With Gordie drawing influence from old time fiddlers like Al Cherney and Ned Landry, and also artists like Buddy Holly.

Mark Radcliffe has said on the BBC Radio 2 Folk Show "Gordie and the Boys are great players, sharp songwriters, invigorating company.....not to mention the nifty dancing. Frankly, what's not to like?"

First and foremost they are known for exhilarating live shows, with Gordie himself saying:

"We take a lot of pride in our live shows, and that is what we feel most comfortable doing. We love being in front of an audience and I think that shows. My favorite response from people, is when someone says 'I don't usually like this kind of music, but I really like you guys'."

VIKINGS INVADE THE MUSEUM!

HISTORY is being brought to life this summer – the Vikings are invading Dorset County Museum! Come and meet the Vikings from 11am until 4pm on Sunday, August 23rd. Witness hand to hand combat, visit craftspeople to find out how chain mail and fishing nets were made, watch Norse cooking demonstrations, mint a Viking coin and listen to exciting Viking sagas full of adventure.

The Wessex based Hrafnslith ('Troop of the Raven') is a regional group belonging to the oldest dark ages historical re-enactment society, "The Vikings". They will be recreating an impressive living history encampment within the Museum, showcasing the lifestyles of the Viking and Anglo-Saxon peoples of the 8th – 11th century.

They will be on hand to give demonstrations of Viking / Saxon Age crafts, skills, games and pastimes as well as performing combat displays with a variety of weaponry.

As part of the event, the public will have the opportunity to view selected areas of the Museum's new Ancient Dorset Gallery supported by the South Dorset Ridgeway Landscape Partnership, before its completion and official opening in the autumn.

Director Dr Jon Murden said "We welcome families at the Museum, and this event is going to be wonderful for children, really bringing history alive for them. We want to inspire the next generation to help conserve Dorset's past, and to that end there will be a special offer on our membership price for any families or individuals who sign up at on the day, which will give them free entry to the Museum for a whole year."

With plenty for children to see and do throughout the summer holidays including museum trails and, for dinosaur fans, a gallery dedicated to all things dinosaur which boasts a huge piosaur skull over 155 million years old, Dorset County Museum is well worth a visit. Find details of our summer events at www.dorsetcountymuseum.org or follow us on Facebook and Twitter.

Burton Bradstock Festival of Music and Art

IF YOU come to one of the concerts during Burton Bradstock's Festival week, the interval is also a lively event because as you stroll from the Church to the Village Hall, a lovely Art exhibition awaits you as you enjoy your drinks. Quite frequently a concert goer spots a picture or piece of ceramics that they like and return next day to purchase it as the exhibition is open from 10 am till 7 pm as well as the concert intervals. Original paintings and prints are all by professional and amateur artists from West Dorset and all are for sale.

One of the artists who is showing again this year, is Charmouth painter Joanne Brown. 'I like the variety of artists work on show and its a very friendly atmosphere, very unstuffy and of a high standard.' Joanne originally came from Poland to the UK when she was ten years old and felt at home immediately because 'it was good to get away from the fear' and she began her own career by going to St. Martin's Art College in London. She then became a teacher of Art, eventually working in Sherbourne and moving to Charmouth in 2000. She has always painted, except for a few years when she was bringing up her 4 boys (one of whom is now a professional artist). She loves the countryside so mainly works on landscapes, in oils or watercolours, but most recently in acrylics, and tends to be inspired by something she sees and wants to sketch it and then paint it fairly quickly so as to catch her immediate reaction to it. She then works it up further in her studio.

Joanne has a lovely sense of colour so do come to Burton Bradstock to see her work and that of many other talented artists during Festival week. The Art Exhibition opens in the Village Hall on Saturday, August 15th and continues until Sunday 23rd August, 10am till 7pm and during the concert intervals and all works are for sale. The concerts start on Monday, August 17th with an exciting folk group Ranagri, then Jazz with singer Tina May on Tuesday, a chamber concert on Wednesday and two orchestral concerts on Thursday and Friday. There are also two lunchtime concerts and four late night recitals and soup is served (free) before the late night concerts so there is another opportunity to see the art works! Tickets are available from GillRedford 01308 897203 and full details are on the website www.burtonbradstockfestival.com

Marc Robinson, a winner from ITV's legendary Stars in Their Eyes show, headlines the spectacular live production, bringing to life classic hits such as Peggy Sue, That'll be the Day and Oh Boy.

Backed by a band reminiscent of the Crickets in their Fifties heyday, Buddy Holly - A Legend Reborn is an authentic slice of rock 'n' roll nostalgia that ensures Buddy's incredible legacy of unforgettable hit songs lives on.

Show producer Michael Taylor says Buddy Holly - A Legend Reborn features Marc Robinson, clutching a Fender Stratocaster, sporting a pair of heavy-rimmed glasses and sounding exactly like Buddy in his heyday.

This year marks the 55th anniversary of the day that Buddy Holly was lost to the world in an airplane crash along with Ritchie Valens and the Big Bopper. Buddy Holly - a Legend Reborn takes an all-new show on the road commemorating the "the day the music died".

Boasting a repertoire of more than 30 of Buddy's greatest hits, Buddy Holly - a Legend Reborn includes some hidden gems as the show celebrates the 60th anniversary of the legendary performer's big break. After graduating from high school, Buddy pursued a full-time career in music, opening for Elvis Presley twice at the Fair Park Coliseum and also at the Cotton Club. Pappy Dave Stone of KDAV Radio from Buddy's home town of Lubbock was responsible for the Elvis bookings and in October he selected Buddy to open for Bill Haley and His Comets to be seen by Nashville scout Eddie Crandall. Crandall put Stone in touch with Grand Ole Opry manager Jim Denny. Stone sent Denny a demo tape to Decca Records, resulting in Buddy Holly's first recording contract.

"Altogether Buddy recorded 109 songs," says Marc. "Obviously, the best-known songs like Heartbeat, Peggy Sue, Oh Boy and That'll Be The Day enjoy a warm reception, but we've been surprised by the depth of knowledge of our audiences."

Indeed, Marc says that the cast was spurred to learn the song Valley of Tears following repeated requests for its inclusion when the show first hit the road.

Show producer Michael Taylor says the production is a theatrical treat whether you are fanatical about Buddy Holly or simply want to enjoy a night of hit-packed music performed by superbly-talented musicians. "Book your seats for the only local date on the show's nationwide tour," he says, "that'll be a very special day, guaranteed!"

Buddy Holly - A Legend Reborn comes to Weymouth's Pavilion Theatre on Thursday, October 8th at 8pm. Tickets are £21 (includes a £1 restoration fee), from the box office on 01305 783225 or from www.weymouthpavilion.com

Award Winning South West Theatre Company brings a new comedy play to the Corn Exchange in Dorchester for The Rugby World Cup

Hannah Douglas

Giles Coram

LIVE WIRE Theatre, one of the South West's foremost theatre companies, has announced a stellar cast for their latest show that they will be staged at The Corn Exchange Dorchester on Wednesday, October 7th as part of the celebrations for The Rugby World Cup 2015.

Giles Coram, Hannah Douglas, Moira Hunt and George Williams lead a distinguished cast in the intriguingly entitled Hands Up for Jonny Wilkinson's Right Boot which will be touring theatres across the South West during the eight week tournament with the generous support of The Arts Council.

Giles Coram's recent theatre credits include playing Harold in An Ideal Husband at The Chichester Festival, whilst Hannah Douglas joins the company fresh from a sell-out UK tour of The Jungle Book in which she played Bagheera. George Williams was most recently a member of the cast of Dumbstruck that won the prestigious MTM Fringe First Award for Innovation and Moira Hunt who joins Live Wire Theatre both as performer and

Movement Director is best known to South West audiences as Co-Artistic Director of the critically acclaimed Roughhouse Theatre

Hands Up for Jonny Wilkinson's Right Boot brings to life one of those unforgettable moments when everyone can remember exactly where they were and what they were doing: The Rugby World Cup Final 2003 - November 22nd 2003 to be precise; England versus Australia in Sydney and with just 26 seconds to the final whistle and the score standing at a tantalising 17-17 Jonny Wilkinson makes history by dropping a goal with his right boot to win the World Cup for England!

And twelve years on as we anticipate the dramas of the impending Rugby World Cup 2015, Live Wire Theatre are set to re-enact the history and drama of Jonny Wilkinson's historic moment together with many other celebrated rugby memories in their innovative and fast moving production of Hands Up for Jonny Wilkinson's Right Boot.

From the first British Lions tour to New Zealand in 1908 to Jonny Wilkinson's 2003 drop goal via Nelson Mandela's presentation of the first ever Rugby World Cup trophy to South African captain Francois Pienaar, Live Wire Theatre embark on a round-the-world-rugby-replay complete with songs, stories and physical re-enactments of matches and rugby rituals including the All-Blacks' legendary Haka.

Commenting on the forthcoming production, Director, Shane Morgan, whose numerous credits include last year's triumph The Bronte Season said that "Live Wire Theatre has assembled a stellar cast for what promises to be a rollicking rugby romp to delight audiences of all ages."

Archaeological Finds Workshop

CIORSTADH Hayward Trevarthen, expert Finds Liaison Officer for Dorset will be in the Museum's Victorian Hall from 10.30 to 12.30 on Saturday, August 15th, to help identify archaeological objects found by members of the public.

If you have any finds from metal detecting, field walking or casual finds from gardening etc. and would like to know more about them, Ciorstaidh will be happy to take a look at them. This includes metal objects such as coins, buckles, brooches and tools, as well as pottery, tile and worked stone.

Finds are identified and, depending on their date and type, may be recorded in more detail onto a national database as part of the Portable Antiquities Scheme. Ciorstaidh is happy to help identify any finds the public brings in, but generally those dating to before 1700 will be recorded.

This event is free of charge, but a small donation in support of Dorset County Museum is encouraged.

Second engine makes the cut in all-new Audi Q7 Range

▲ The all-new Audi Q7

BY JETTISONING up to 325kg in weight compared with its predecessor the all-new Audi Q7 is perfectly placed to capitalise on the fuel-saving capabilities of advanced new engines like the 218PS V6 TDI, which has just joined the range. Complementing the 272PS version of this remarkably efficient and refined 3.0-litre unit, which spearheaded the launch of the re-engineered seven-seat luxury SUV, the new lower output option is capable of returning in excess of 49mpg with CO2 emissions of as little as 148g/km. The new Audi Q7 3.0 TDI quattro 218PS is available in SE and S line with its 20-inch upgrade can deliver up to 48.7mpg according to the combined cycle test, equating to CO2 output of 150g/km. Customers who choose the SE, and who isn't short-changed on performance. The EU6-compliant unit's 218PS peak output, available from 3,250rpm through to 4,750rpm, and the 500Nm torque maximum it delivers between 1,250rpm and 3,000rpm, are slickly converted by the eight-speed tiptronic automatic transmission into a 0-62mph time of just 7.3 seconds and a potential top speed of 134mph.

Yet thanks in part to modifications to the water pump, oil cooler and combustion process, among other things, the SE version with its 19-inch alloy wheels and the S line with its 20-inch upgrade can deliver up to 48.7mpg according to the combined cycle test, equating to CO2 output of 150g/km. Customers who choose the SE, and who place particular emphasis on economy and efficiency, can specify a smaller 18-inch wheel as an alternative to further reduce consumption and emissions – with their help up to 49.6mpg is possible with emissions of 148g/km.

Another significant contributing factor to these impressive returns is the intensive weight optimisation programme that has shaved precious kilograms from the Q7 in every area from the suspension and drivetrain components to the body panels. The most notable savings were made in the multimerial body-in-white, which is 71kg lighter than its predecessor, in the all-aluminium doors which strip away 24kg and in the chassis with its sophisticated new five-link suspension, which subtracts 67kg.

Adaptive air suspension now available individually

With the seven-seat configuration which is standard for UK models the Q7 weighs in at a total of 240kg lighter than the same set-up in the outgoing model, and the weight discrepancy between old and new five-seat versions (a no-cost option in the UK) is an even more impressive 325kg. This not only gives a freer rein to the V6 TDI units but also reduces unsprung masses to enable the newly developed suspension to deliver the best possible ride comfort.

For the ultimate in unruffled travel an adaptive air suspension system, which itself weighs 10kg less than before, can be added at extra cost to keep the body consistently level and suppress the worst effects of the roughest of surfaces, no matter what the Q7 carries and where it ventures. The system was previously available only as part of the Dynamic Pack but can now also be ordered as a standalone option.

For consummate control in all weathers and on all surfaces quattro all-wheel-drive is fitted as standard. Managed by a self-locking centre differential which apportions 40 per cent of power to the front and 60 per cent to the rear under normal driving conditions, it can shift up to 70 per cent forwards and up to 85 per cent rearwards if either axle becomes overburdened.

All-wheel-steering as a segment first

All-wheel-drive can also be supplemented as an option in the new Q7 by all-wheel-steering – a unique feature in the SUV segment. At low speeds, the front and rear wheels turn in opposite directions, reducing the turning circle by up to one metre for noticeably easier manoeuvrability when parking and turning at low speeds. At higher speeds the rear wheels turn with the front by up to 3.5 degrees to enhance steering response and improve stability.

This ground-breaking technological sophistication is carried over into the interior. As a starting point, the latest MMI navigation plus incorporating an ultra-clear 8.3-inch electrically retractable monitor and large fingertip-reactive MMI Touch pad serves as a portal for a wealth of entertainment and infotainment content in the Q7, and trial access to the internet-based services and in-car web browsing opportunities offered by Audi connect is also included.

Fiat 500X Mopar® Accessory Range

MOPAR® – the FIAT Chrysler Automobiles brand for services, customer care, spare parts and accessories – has unveiled an extensive range of accessories and personalisation options for the new FIAT 500X crossover.

Over 100 high-quality accessories have been designed specifically for the FIAT 500X crossover to enhance its functionality and allow customers to adapt the look of their vehicle to their particular personalities. The unique range of 18-inch alloy wheels, for example, are offered in a range of colours and aesthetic treatments, including machined silver with white recesses, red wheels with black recesses and all-black wheels, and all priced from just £816* for a set of four.

Door mirror fairings are offered in nine colour options from just £61* per pair, while door moulding inserts are available in five finishes from £214* a set and there are also a range of original decals for the roof, bonnet and upper and lower body sides in a variety of colours designed to coordinate perfectly with other accessories in the same colour. Pricing for side decals start at just £81* while the roof/bonnet decals start at £127*.

There are six "Xtra Pack" kits available which combine a selection of options in single, great-value bundles. The kits – offered in white, red, bronze and beige – feature matching bonnet/roof stripes, mirror fairings and door moulding inserts and are priced at just £305*, a saving of almost £100 compared to the individually-priced parts. For those who prefer the classic look, the Chrome Xtra Pack (Pop, Pop Star and Lounge only) includes chrome-effect mirror fairings, door moulding inserts, fog light trims and a chrome bonnet moulding, while the Black Xtra Pack includes black bonnet and roof decals and black mirror caps but excludes door moulding inserts as the mouldings are already black.

The FIAT 500X's functionality is enhanced by a wide range of roof systems, from the 360-litre Freebox (£259*) to sports equipment systems (from £112*). The Winter Xtra Pack, for example, combines custom-fit roof bars with an adaptor capable of securely and safely carrying four skis or two snowboards as well as a moulded cargo bay protector for snow-covered boots and clothing. The Summer Xtra Pack consists of the same roof bars combined with a bike carrier and moulded cargo area tray and is currently available for only £235*, a saving of £78 compared to the price of buying the roof bars (£137*), boot protector (£40*) and bike carrier (£136*) separately.

Cargo bay organiser kits are also available, which fit into a special base structure comprised of two slide rails that are fixed to the floor using special adaptors (£345*). Telescopic bars (£62*), spring-loaded bands (£47*) and organiser boxes (£31*) can then be installed to separate, organise and restrain all manner of cargo objects.

A detachable tow bar (£360*) with wiring systems (from £168*) and a towbar-mounted two-bike carrier system (£613) are also available, while a variety of stylish key covers (£43* per twin pack) and carbon-look mirror fairings (in white or black from £120*) round out the options currently available for the 500X.

For images please visit www.fiatpress.co.uk. The Mopar® 500X accessory range is on display and available to order at FIAT dealership throughout the UK, or they can be viewed online under the "Accessories" tab of the FIAT 500X configurator at www.fiat500.com/site/en-uk/500x/configurator

All-new ŠKODA Fabia Monte Carlo: From just £99 per month

ŠKODA is expanding its award-winning Fabia range with the introduction of the new Fabia Monte Carlo, which adds enhanced exterior body styling and a sporty new interior.

The Fabia Monte Carlo builds on the already comprehensive standard equipment of the Fabia SE. It adds 16-inch Italia black alloy wheels, a black radiator grille and black door mirror caps, body coloured rear spoiler, front fog lights, LED daytime running lights, sunset glass, Monte Carlo badging on the B-pillar and a panoramic glass sunroof. On the inside, additional equipment includes bespoke front sports seats, front and rear floor mats with red stitching, black decorative inserts, a cherry red centre console, Monte Carlo pedals, a multi-function sports steering wheel, pearl grey roof lining and carpet, and Monte Carlo badging on the front door inserts. The Fabia Monte Carlo Estate also comes with black roof rails.

All of the additional equipment is on top of the generously equipped SE model which comes with Bolero infotainment system with 6.5-inch colour touchscreen, DAB radio, Bluetooth and SmartLink (a system that mirrors certain smartphone and Apple iPhone functions on the car's screen), air conditioning, Front Assist emergency braking system, remote locking and alarm.

The Fabia Monte Carlo is available with the same wide range of engines in both hatch and estate. There are three petrol units: a 1.0-litre, three-cylinder 75PS MPI with five-speed manual gearbox; a 1.2-litre four-cylinder 90PS

TSI with five-speed manual gearbox; a 1.2-litre four-cylinder 110PS with six-speed manual or seven-speed DSG gearbox; and two diesels: a 1.4-litre three cylinder unit with 90PS and a five-speed manual gearbox; and a 1.4-litre three cylinder unit with 105PS and a five-speed manual gearbox.

Prices start from £14,645 OTR and is available from just £99 per month, 0% finance included, when purchased through ŠKODA Financial Services on Solutions PCP.

The Monte Carlo name is a link to ŠKODA's rally success, and the previous-generation Fabia Monte Carlo was a best-seller in the UK. The new Monte Carlo brings a slice of rally-inspired styling to the Fabia, which was recently named What Car? magazine's Car of the Year.

For further details of these and other award-winning ŠKODA models see www.skoda.co.uk. The Fabia Monte Carlo is available to order now, with first deliveries in September.

Britain Still Struggling To Break The Drink Drive Habit

BRAKE, the road safety charity, has reiterated its call for a zero-tolerance drink drive limit, in response to government figures showing Britain is still failing to adequately tackle its drink drive problem. A final estimate shows 240 people were killed by drivers over the legal drink drive limit in 2013, while provisional estimates suggest at least that number were killed again in 2014.

However, the number of people seriously injured in drink drive crashes did fall by 8% to 1,100 from 2012 to 2013, with drink drive casualties of all severities down 17% to 8,270 in the same period. Brake has cautiously welcomed this news.

The figures show that the profile of Britain's illegal drink drivers has remained largely the same:

Three quarters (74%) of those killed and seriously injured are male.

More than three in ten (31%) drivers killed aged 25 to 39 are over the drink drive limit – the highest of any age group.

A quarter of drink drive deaths and serious injuries result from crashes where a young driver (17-24 years old) was over the limit.

Brake is highlighting international evidence showing that lower drink drive limits and increased enforcement help to bring down drink drive crashes.

Meanwhile, provisional figures for the year ending March 2015 have again shown little progress in overall road casualty reduction, with casualties of all severities down 2% to 186,060 – too small a fall to be statistically significant. Brake advocates the reintroduction of ambitious casualty reduction targets to stimulate meaningful progress, and is calling on the government to adopt a 'vision zero' approach.

Mudford
one two!

By Richard Jackman

IN the August medal it was a family affair in Division One as the winner, dad, Mike Mudford, net 68 just beat son Ian, 69 who in turn beat Mark Lewis by one shot.

Division Two was won by James Turner with the best score of the day – a net 63 followed by Ian McGown, 66 and Joey Thirlwell, 68.

In the midweek stableford young Brad Searle won with 36 points from Rob Clapp, 35, and junior captain George Seed 34.

In the Ladies' August medal, Division One was won by Hanna Jacobsen with a below par 71 from Anne Humphreys 73 and Lesley Jolleyman, 74. Division Two was won by Elaine Colman 72, from Linda Richmond, 74 and Jean Moss 76.

Anne Humphreys' sterling performance was good enough for her to win the Grannie Shield.

Gig Racing

Bridport Juniors triumph at Lyme Regis Regatta

ON Saturday the sunshine and calm conditions made for a brilliant day for Lyme Regis Gig Club's annual regatta.

Bridport entered 11 crews racing against squads from Newquay, Ilfracombe, Bristol, Weymouth, Teign, Sidmouth, Poole, Portland, Exmouth, Brixham, Clevedon, Langstone, Swanage, Torridge and Lyme.

The races were over a long two-mile, kite shaped course, making for a test of endurance.

With the heat and the lack of cloud cover the race was tough, but made for exciting battles between boats for final placings.

The day began with the juniors' race. Over a slightly shortened course Bridport's juniors, also consisting of two Lyme rowers, had a brilliant start in racing gig 'Dagger'.

With strong buoy turns and a sprint to the line, they were two boat lengths in front of the pack. Lyme came second in 'Tempest' and Langstone Cutters came third.

Bridport Gig club's newly formed superset crew did well in their first race of the season in different, may be it close, waters coming in seventh amongst some formidable teams.

The mens and ladies A, B and C crews all came in the top eight out of 13 boats, the ladies vets finishing third, having been in front for the first part of the course. The mens vets secured sixth and the mixed 13th.

Consistent high placings resulted in Bridport finishing in fifth place overall.

This regatta was one in a series of events leading up to the most significant event in the rowing calendar in this half of the season - the Newquay County Championships which consists of mens, ladies and junior events over separate weekends in September.

This event attracts almost every club in the country and is what all clubs train for all season long.

Bridport will be entering and are busy training most days on and off the water.

If you would like to give rowing a go, or want to know any more about the club please contact the secretary on rowingsecretary@bridportgigclub.org or visit the website www.bridportgigclub.org.

Lyme making their mark with the big boys

PRECEDING their own regatta, Lyme Regis Gig Club travelled to the picturesque village of Cawsand, on the Rame peninsula in Cornwall, to take part in the next round on the racing calendar, the Rame regatta.

This event drew the strongest field yet from the South West, which included the likes of World Champions, Falmouth and other long-established Cornish clubs.

Sunshine and calm waters made for a perfect day of gig racing. However, a reasonable westerly across the course was making the home stretch a little harder than the preceding legs.

As there were 30 or so crews, larger than most regattas, each category was divided into two heats.

Proceedings got underway with the Men's A race. As with all of the cate-

Rhys Hayter then got in on the act with a sweetly struck double and new signing Lewis Middleton rounded things off.

Portland had previously drawn with Axminster Town Reserves, but the Tigers' second-string were no match for BEAMINSTER, under the guidance of new player-manager Adam Herring, who cruised to a 5-0 away win with Dominic McAllister, Gary Cory, Brandon Scadding and Alf Ward all on target in last Wednesday's friendly.

Meanwhile an UPLYME XI was beaten 4-1 by visiting Millway Rise Reserves at Venlake on Thursday evening.

A Matt Beechey hat-trick and an OG saw Rise to victory with MoM Alex Jones grabbing the hosts' consolation.

Seasiders have Bottle

Uplyme 2 Lyme Regis XI 4
LYME Regis retained their grip on the Bass Bottle with a 4-2 win over neighbours Uplyme at Venlake on Friday Evening.

The Seasiders took the lead through Rhys Evans in the first minute. Uplyme levelled midway through the half through an own goal only for Pete Peacock to edge Lyme ahead soon after.

But a minute before the break Jake Bearpark made it 2-2 with a 30-yard shot.

The Swallows had a good chance to take to lead but were thwarted by a brave save by keeper Jim Larcombe.

Lyme regained the lead just before the hour with the pick of the goals - a superb 35-yarder from centre-back Mark Batey.

The scoring was completed by birthday boy Fred Thomson who netted from the penalty spot 10 minutes from time.

◆ FIRST HOME: Three members of the victorious Bridport Junior crew and cox Mark Vanstone with their medals.

gories, Lyme were drawn in the second heat.

A rapid start saw all of the teams head off towards the first marker. The teams then settled into their racing positions with Lyme holding off challenges from some of the stronger crews to finish 14th from a field of 21 in a time of 15m 54.22 secs.

This was followed by the Men's B race in which Lyme had a little 'coming together' with a boat crewed by a 'Help for Heroes' team. Lyme eventually pulled away, hunting down the leading pack.

They finished 10th of 23 in 16m 03.59 secs with one of their rowers, Neil Spurdle, having just competed in the Men's A race as one of their crew fell ill and couldn't make it to the event.

After the Juniors' section came the Ladies races, and it was the A category starting the second half of the afternoon with Lyme entered into the second heat.

From a field of 24 boats, Lyme maintained their 20th position, crossing the line in 18m 29.40 secs.

The Bs were up next. In a field of 25 boats, they made a very good start, finding their pace at around midfield and managed to cross the line in 20th.

The final races were the Ladies and Men's Vets. The latter being the most successful of the afternoon for Lyme.

A very good position at the first marker helped the Lyme boys, in Black Ven, cross the line in 5th place from 17 crews.

The Ladies Vets was a hard fought race with 19 contenders.

Lyme's Ladies crossed the line in 13th position ahead of the host team.

Leaders
Greenhill
toppled

By Paul Moffitt

THE Ladies came unstuck this week losing all 10 points at home to Broadstone in the Dorset League Division One.

In the South Dorset League, the men had a good 8-2 result against leaders Greenhill B.

The club's trip to Cardiff resulted in a bit of a hiding, with only Paul Pomeroy's rink returning home with a win.

The Club fared better in their away game at South Petherton, winning three of the four rinks.

Division One of the West Dorset Mens' League gets going again this coming week after a two week hiatus.

With the title already safely in their pocket already, Lyme 1 now have nothing to prove.

However, Lyme 2 need to press hard in their remaining games to keep clear of the drop zone.

Skipper leads the way as Weymouth end win drought

Dorset Funeral Plan League Premier Division

DORCHESTER 135 LOST TO WIMBORNE & C'HILL 139-6 BY 4 WICKETS
WITH 13 players unavailable, Dorchester were always going to struggle against Wimborne & Colehill.

Batting first they lost Marcus Evans (2), Sean Fitzgerald (4) and Ian Legg (14) with just 27 on the board. Solid contributions from Mike Peak (40) and Nick Roe (41) who put on 75 for the third wicket, but the introduction of Harry Beardsley (6-32) broke the stand and with captain Simon Mitchem for once failing with the bat being dismissed first ball, the rest soon followed, and Dorchester were dismissed for just 141.

Peter Horne (4-41) had early success when the visitors replied and with the dangerous Colin Randall (21) back in the pavilion were 40-3.

Simon Woodruff hit five 4s in his 25 but when he was leg before wicket to Peak Dorchester looked like they might win as the visitors slumped to 80-6.

However, Dorchester could not dislodge the seventh wicket partnership of George Bartlett (31 not out) and James Miller (29 not out) as they steered Wimborne home with almost 14 overs to spare.

MARTINSTOWN 141 ALL OUT

LOST TO WEYMOUTH 209-7 BY 68 RUNS
WEYMOUTH finally recorded their first win of the season when they beat local rivals Martinstown at Lower Ashton Farm thanks to a superb batting display from stand-in captain Will McKay who finished unbeaten three short of his century.

Deciding to bat on a good wicket, Weymouth were kept in check early on by another wonderful display of bowling by James Pickering whose ten overs cost just 11 runs, and with Chris Read (1-41) and good pace from Stuart Fry (1-16) also excelling they had the upper hand with Weymouth 27-2, but McKay and Simon Browne (18) pulled Weymouth back into the game.

The skipper, who was dropped when in his 40's and 60's, batted patiently and finally started to accelerate, and with good support from Joe James (13) and then Ryan Sers who hit a delightful 31 edged them over the 200 mark.

Although Martinstown lost Ross Stewart (2) early on, captain Ed Nichols (16) and Sam Kershaw nudged the score towards 50.

But the introduction of Alex Mortimore (4-28), who found a bit of seam, changed the complexion of the game. He had Nichols caught by behind by Jim Ryall, and then ripped out the heart of the hosts order.

When Kershaw was stumped by Ryall for 47 which included seven 4s and a six, Martinstown were 97-7 and although the tail wagged a little, the evergreen Graham Puckett with 3-34 ensured Weymouth's first victory of the season.

The well deserved win, their first after a losing streak of 20 consecutive matches avoided equalling Wayfarers 1971 record in the Dorset Club Championship of not winning a game in the top division in a league season.

County Division Two

COMPTON HOUSE 110 ALL OUT LOST TO CATTISTOCK 199-8 BY 89 RUNS
AN opening century stand between Jon Legg (54) and Martin Langford (43) was the basis for this Cattistock win.

Ben Gollidge won the toss for the 12th time in 14 matches and decided to bat and it looked like they might hit a big total, but at 156-4, Mike Harper took three wickets in four balls in one over, and only an eighth wicket stand between Liam Toohill (26) and Gollidge (13 not out) saw them reach 199-8 from their allocation.

Bradley Damen (2-18) and Legg (2-20) did a good job containing the hosts in reply and with run machine Harper (8) falling to a great catch by Toohill they lost wickets regularly and at drinks (20 overs) were 48-5.

Brilliant fielding and great bowling kept the pressure on Compton House with Jack Walklett (3-25) and Langford (2-27) whom were finally dismissed for 110 with only Dunning (26) and Bunday (24) showing any resistance.

County Division Three

BEAMINSTER 229 ALL OUT LOST TO ASHMORE 286-5 BY 57 RUNS
AN unbeaten 132 from Lee Russell set promotion hopefuls Ashmore on the road to victory over Beaminster.

The visitors were set a huge target of 287 in 45 overs to chase, and although middle order battled hard with captain Ross Baker hitting a half century, the home team fell 57 runs short with Terry Field unable to bat.

In sweltering heat Ashmore won a crucial toss and unsurprisingly elected to bat on a flat track with a short boundary on one side.

After a flying start from openers Maidment (41) and Taylor (32) who both hit a succession of boundaries, the Beaminster bowlers gained some control with some tight bowling backed up by eager fielding.

Crucially Ashmore kept wickets in hand and they never panicked as the run rate slowed.

Dave Persey made the breakthrough with 92 on the board, but the introduction of Russell who batted for the rest of the innings took advantage of any loose deliveries.

Baker (2-34) returned for his second spell and removed Maidment as Chris Lamb executed a sharp stumping, and Watson (13) as Vijay took a smart slip catch.

However, Russell was then dropped off Baker's bowling which prompted Beaminster's fielding to unravel as the team wilted in the heat.

Three further catches were put down as Russell chanced his arm and accelerated the scoring by smashing nine sixes, and although Ade Phillips and Vijay both claimed wickets, the damage had been done.

The highlight of Beaminster's reply was a 111 run fourth wicket partnership between Ross Baker (56) and Will Everitt (46), who although never threatening Ashmore's target they ensured respectability.

Vijay then played an entertaining cameo of 27 runs before the innings closed on 229.

KINGSTON LACY 157 LOST TO DORCHESTER 2ND 163 ALL OUT BY 6 RUNS

DORCHESTER 2nds claimed victory by the smallest margin to keep their promotion hopes alive, and dash their host's chances.

Asked to bat, they lost Ben Macklin early, but Rhys Cole (44) and Malcolm Stroudley (15) steadied the ship.

Captain Stuart Beasley (28) and Alex Horne (18) helped keep the score ticking over, and with useful runs from the tailenders they mustered 163 all out in just 29 overs, Dave Priddle with 4-25 the main wicket taker for Kingston Lacy.

Beasley's (3-35) opening spell had the hosts in trouble at 11-3 and at 19-4 a comfortable win for the county town looked a foregone conclusion.

But Nigel Hymas (14) stayed with top score Bob Dykes (41) to add 60 for the fifth wicket, and with Karl Jones (36) they crept towards their target only to fall six runs short.

County Division Five

CHARLTON DOWN 238-7 BEAT SHAFTESBURY 112-6 BY 126 RUNS

CHARLTON Down moved a step close to promotion to Division Four with an crushing 116 run victory which effectively ended fellow promotion contenders Shaftesbury promotion hopes leaving Charlton Down, Puddletown and Blandford 2nds to fight it out for the two remaining spots.

Charlton openers Jack Eveleigh and Jae Miller batted well against the Shaftesbury opening bowlers. Chris White (1-31) bowled with great control and only conceded 11 runs from his first five overs, but it was a change bowler Mark Lewis (1-44) made the break on 44 getting Miller (26).

It was the second wicket stand of 96 between teenagers Jack Eveleigh (62) and Nick Voss (45) that saw the game move away from Shaftesbury, both players played with stubborn defence and an array of quality shots around the ground.

Voss was eventually well caught whilst Eveleigh reached his second 50 of the season with a sublime straight driven boundary.

◆ GOOD KNOCK: Jack Eveleigh

He was finally dismissed after two and a quarter hours at the crease by a direct hit on the stumps.

Eveleigh's departure brought USA bound golfing university student Sam Roles (52), given licence to thrill, who brought up his 30-ball fifty with a six.

Kim Park, Alex Campbell and Rob Rutter added quick runs as the innings drew to a close on 238-7.

The Shaftesbury batsmen had no answer to the opening bowling brothers of Matt (1-12) and Dan Stevens (0-13) losing Dave Toogood to a lovely ball from Matt Stevens which nipped back between bat and pad to knock the middle stump out of the ground.

At the 15 over drinks break the score was on 24-1 and with over 200 runs still required from 25 overs the Shaftesbury batsmen decided to accumulate two more batting points.

They finished on 112-6 from their 40 overs with their captain Rob Bryant defiantly carrying his bat for a careful 58.

Campbell bowled well swinging the ball dismissing Chris White and Tom Bradford in consecutive overs. Roles then took a brilliant diving caught and bowled to remove Dan Ling with the Shaftesbury score on 37-4 after 23 overs.

A 63-run partnership between wicketkeeper Kev Martin and captain Bryant saw the score to 102-5, before Park (2-21) dismissed Martin and then Langhorne before before the innings closed on 112-6.

BROADSTONE 3RD 193-8 BEAT MARTINSTOWN 2ND 190-7 BY 2 WICKETS
Broadstone 3rds' two wicket victory, with an over to spare, saw the host's leapfrog Martinstown 2nds.

County Division Six

STALBRIDGE 3RD 274-7 BEAT BEAMINSTER 2ND 122 BY 152 RUNS
STALBRIDGE 3rds moved ahead of Beaminster 2nds after this comfortable win.

Batting first they scored 247-7 with E Stevens top scoring, and only captain Dave Penman successful with the ball taking 4-47.

Beaminster never really got going in reply with only Rob Meech and David Hall with 20 each, and Jason Nottley (19) able to make any mark with the bat.

Sunday Division Three

SYMENE 172-6 BEAT

PORTLAND RT 170 ALL OUT BY 4 WICKETS
LIAM Toohill was the star of this victory over Portland RT taking 5-16 as Portland looked set to make a big score, before setting up victory with well paced 75 with the bat in reply, although this was a good all round performance by Symene.

Batting first Ray Emery and Tony Quayle saw off Toohill and opening partner captain Graham Bartlett as they put on 106 for the first wicket.

It was Will Parkes (1-17), one of five young teenage players in the side, as third change bowler who made the breakthrough, trapping Quayle leg before for 44.

This led too small collapse, and with another youth player Callum Pattinson (1-10) taking a good caught and bowled, the Islanders slipped to 117-4.

However, they could not get rid of Emery who carried his bat with a chanceless 82 not out, and they moved the score on to 153 before the returning Toohill struck.

He then claimed a hat-trick and with the help of Bartlett (2-24), also returning, the innings closed at 170 all out.

Nick Skyrme (18) and Nigel Toohill, got them off to a positive reply but the loss of Skyrme and Phil Hawkins (14) saw them 48-2.

However Liam joined his father Nigel at the crease and they steadied the ship with a stand of 71.

The loss of Toohill senior for a dogged 34, brought another junior Luke Robertson (9) to the crease where another 32 run stand ensured victory for Symene.

Portland's Jack Marsh (1-5) picked up his first senior wicket when he had George Wyrill caught, with dad Craig, who took 3-21, proudly looking on, but Symene eased home with eight balls remaining.

Buckler eying late September

By Stuart Broom
FORMER Melpash and Henley-based national hunt trainer Bob Buckler, who moved to a 60 plus acre farm at the base of the Quantocks in April 2014, is getting his horses back from their summer break in readiness for horses to be back competing in late September.

Buckler cut down the number of horses following the move, and now trains eight including an new addition UPTOAL, a seven-year old, a point-to-point winner who Buckler saw racing in the north of England.

"He's very athletic looking, and at seven is ready to go racing. He looked very impressive when I saw him win, and I am very excited about him."

Uptoal, is one of two horses that Buckler is looking to lease for the season to a syndicate, together with the Ballyegan who was syndicated last year.

The ten-year old has been placed in half of his 39 runs including an excellent spell including four wins, three seconds and three third places in his 12 races last season.

The two horses will be part of a select small racing club of ten members each paying £3,500 for the season's fees.

They will both race on local tracks to Buckler's yard at tracks such as Newton Abbott, Exeter, Taunton, Worcester, Wincanton, so that members can travel easily to see their investment.

"The idea is to ensure you do not have to travel far.

There will be no additional fees, and all winnings will be split less the jockey's fees."

Buckler also has UGOLIN DE BEAUMONT, HOO BALLY DIVA and SAY MY NAME who have got much stronger during the summer break.

SOMERSET LIAS, who, after a promising start then disappointed, is looking to come back to form, whilst TINKER TIME showed a lot of promise last season.

Bridport Reserves 1 Blandford United 0

Dorset Premier League

NEW boss Shaun Annetts was pleased with his side's performance and three points following this narrow win over Blandford United.

Without four of his squad who were needed for first team duty, the Bees put in a solid if not polished performance against strong, tall and powerful visitors.

"It was pleasing to get off to a winning start. It doesn't matter so much the performance and how you play, it's getting some points on the board."

Bridport played into their opponents hands a little in the first half by knocking long balls forward in the air which were meat and drink to the Blandford defence.

Bridport lost Sam Day after 15 minutes with a reoccurrence of a hamstring twinge and was replaced by Josh Butler.

The visitors thought they had taken the lead on 24 minutes, but the player was adjudged offside after being put through the home defence.

enforced reshuffle

Annetts said: "We had a difficult first 45 minutes, exasperated by Sam's injury, but we adjusted and Josh slotted in at left back, a position he hasn't played before, with Darren Lock and Jamie Fry marshalled the centre of defence.

"We are also very lucky this year to have Lee Cleal in goal, he has been fantastic in pre-season and in this match - I can't speak highly enough of him."

"I was pleased with our play in patches where we played nice football in and around the final third, but weren't clinical enough."

The half-time team talk had centred around Annetts asking his players to play the ball more on the ground, which paid dividends as the Bees had much more possession and caused the visitors defence problems.

The result was the only goal of the game from Rob Jones five minutes in.

The diminutive midfielder beat two defenders as he cut in on a run at the Blandford defence before firing a shot which the keeper touched but could not stop going inside his left hand post.

There were further injury problems ten minutes after the restart when Simon Gale had to be substituted after tweaking a thigh muscle.

Former Beaminster striker Josh Hunter might have doubled the lead just after the hour when he raced on to a through ball but this time his shooting let him down.

Bridport continued to hold the sway, but when they had to, defended well and they held on to take all three points.

INSIDE: Comprehensive local sport round-up

Batey leads from front

UPLYME & LYME Regis 1st XI dug themselves out of a hole to clinch their eighth league win in a row.

Things were certainly going to plan as superb spells from Paddy Barraclough (3-21) and Rhys Davies (2-33) had the hosts in trouble at 51 for 5 with all the wickets being cleaned bowled.

Then Ollie Lee entered the fray and ripped through the lower and middle order taking 4 for 17 which moved him up to 25 wickets for the season.

A target of 97 looked to be well within the grasp of the visiting batsman. But a catastrophic collapse – reminiscent of the Australians at Trent Bridge just two days earlier – saw them in all kinds of trouble at 9 for 5!

But the Batey siblings, Mark and Steve knuckled down and put on a crucial 63 for the sixth wicket.

Skipper Steve went on to score what must be one of his most vital half-centuries for the club finishing 52 not out as Uplyme stumbled to 98 for 7 in the 31st over.
